

Protection Sold by Dio, Lawyer Tells Probers

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Brooklyn lawyer testified today that racketeer Johnny Dio sold "protection" through a union contract to automobile glass dealers in the New York area.

Stanley Lehrer, attorney for the Auto Glass Dealers Assn. of Greater New York, told the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee he sat in on the negotiations. He said Dio guaranteed the 150 association members they would have no further labor troubles if they signed up with Local 227 of the old United Auto Workers Union AFL.

Lehrer said at least 60 per cent of the shops are one-man or two-man operations, in which the owners hire no employees, but that they had to join the union anyway and pay monthly fees and dues to both the union and Dio's Equitable Research Corp.

Robert F. Kennedy, the committee counsel, called it a "sweetheart" contract—a term applied to contracts in which union officials and employers reach terms to benefit themselves but which afford few benefits for the workers.

Lehrer said "I agree it was a very soft contract," which would mean little to the dues-paying employees. Casually, he added, it was "very favorable to the employer in a one man shop who had no need for it in the first place."

Lehrer said the contract, which called for payments ranging upward from $190 a year from shops and their employees, brought the association immunity against "jurisdictional" disputes in which rival unions would place picket lines around their plants and thus shut off delivery to glass for installation.

One thing the contract did, the lawyer said, was put an end to visits from a character named Benny (The Bug) Ross, who was trying to organize the plants into a rival union.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A "sweetheart" contract allegedly engineered by New York racketeer Johnny Dio today comes under scrutiny of senators investigating improper labor-management practices.

"Sweetheart" is the term used for labor contracts in which union officials and employers allegedly reach terms to benefit themselves, but which provide few benefits for the worker bound by them.

Dio, also known as John Dioguardi, was convicted in a New York court last month of a union shakedown conspiracy involving two New York electroplating firms. He has not yet been sentenced on the charge.

Testimony at that trial indicated that the Equitable Research Associates, Inc., which he set up as a labor consultant service, actually was a shakedown racket to sell labor peace for a price.

Dio himself is expected to be summoned later as a witness. At yesterday's hearing, two alleged associates of Dio invoked the Fifth Amendment, more than 50 times between them.

Sieck, wavy-haired Milton Holt, secretary-treasurer of Teamsters Local 805, refused to tell more than his name and Flushing, N.Y., address. He declined to say whether Dio actually controls this local.

More Money for Arkansas Bases

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee today approved more than $12 million dollar in military construction at the Blytheville and Little Rock Air Force bases in Arkansas.

The money is included in a $1,581,590,587 bill for military construction. The committee cut the amount by $279,158,380 below the amount requested by President Eisenhower.

The Arkansas items call for the expenditure of $1,180,000 at the Blytheville base and $501,000 at Little Rock.

Other items include:

Barksdale, La.: Air Force Base, $3,884,000; Lake Charles, La., AFB, $72,000; England, La., AFB, $3,154,000; and Greenville Miss., AFB, $20,802,000.

Future FHA Interest Hike Under Study

WASHINGTON (AP) — A rise in FHA interest rates, the second in eight months, brought talk today of congressional action to limit any further increases.

The Federal Housing Administration made effective today an increase from 5 to 5½ per cent in the maximum interest rate on home mortgages it insures. The rate was boosted last December from ½ to 5 per cent.

Along with the higher rate, FHA also announced yesterday lower down payments on homes financed with government-backed mortgages. The biggest reduction applies to houses in the $10,000-$25,000 class.

Lowering of FHA down payments was greeted generally with approval in Congress. But the interest boost immediately drew the fire of Democrats who have been critical of administration monetary policies.

Rep. Rains (D-Aiz.), chairman of the Housing subcommittee of the House, said "Congress must study the whole FHA program." He raised the possibility he would seek to fix a lower FHA rate ceiling.

"It may well be," he declared, "that we will have to enact legislation placing some sort of reasonable limit on FHA interest rates to stop the present administration's mania for continually raising interest rates."

Rains said, "Apparently this administration cannot take any action in the financial field which does not benefit the big banking interests in some way."

State GOPs Lick Arkansas Recorder

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — The Arkansas Republican party has adopted the Arkansas Recorder, a weekly newspaper published here, as an unofficial party organ.

State GOP leaders said they will run a Republican feature story each week in the paper, which is published by John F. Wells.

The party, in a paid advertisement, urged Republican party members and "disillusioned" Democrats to purchase subscription to the paper. Officials said the party was not necessarily in accord with "everything the Recorder says and does, not does the paper endorse every proposal put forward by Republicans."

The ad said the reason for the arrangements was the 1957 act, which requires the GOP to hold a primary election instead of nominating candidates at a convention.

Husbands Like to Discuss Odd Behavior of Wives

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the subjects husbands like to discuss is the odd behavior of their wives. This is particularly true around this time of year, when the New York Yankees have as usual taken a commanding lead in the American League, and there is very little else to talk about anyway.

The other evening I was attending an informal kitchen caucus of husbands at a party, when one suddenly volunteered:

"The thing I can't understand about my wife is why she likes to get up and crawl around the house at night after everyone else is asleep."

There was a moment's silence, then every other husband present exclaimed in a surprised chorus: "Does your wife do that, too?" Well, apparently all wives are crawling insomniacs. Each husband testified that scores of times in his marital career, he had awakened to find his better half padding around the premises all alone.

House Criticizes Handling of L. R. Base Heating

By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee today criticized the way the Defense Department and Air Force handled a contract providing for heating and air conditioning of housing on the new Little Rock Air Force Base.

It declared, in a report to the House, that "it appears that factors were considered in connection with determining the low bid for heating and air conditioning in the housing project which went beyond factors normally considered in government contracting."

The report continued: "While this contract has progressed beyond the point where it could be cancelled without extra expense to the government, the committee warns that hereafter such contracting be handled without inclusion of the factors not heretofore considered in connection with government contract."

The report did not discuss the "factors" to which it referred.

However, printed accounts of the committee's hearings show the group closely questioned Defense and Air Force officials on figures used in calculating costs of the all-electric heating and air conditioning units, and of comparable gas heating units plus individual air conditioning units.

The all-electric system, which involves use of heat pumps, was accepted for installation in some 1,535 units of Chaparral housing at the base. The contract was let over the protest of the Arkansas-Louisiana Gas Co., which had submitted a bid for gas heating.

Both the gas company and the Arkansas Power and Light Co. submitted cost estimates on the two systems which varied considerably.

U. S. Rips Into Russia for Convoy Holdup

BERLIN (AP) — The United States has accused Russian border guards of "irregular, irresponsible and arbitrary action" in holding up a U.S. Army convoy en route to West Germany.

An Army spokesman said a convoy of 28 trucks carrying 82 GIs was stopped yesterday at a Soviet checkpoint outside West Berlin. It was bound for West Germany over the military highway running through East German territory.

The Russians asked for the soldiers' identification cards and for the first time insisted on comparing the pictures on them with the soldiers' faces. The convoy commander offered the Soviets his assurance that the soldiers and pictures matched. The Russian refused to accept his word and the American ordered the convoy back into West Berlin.

Maj. Gen. Barksdale Hamlett sent an officer to Soviet headquarters in East Berlin with a sharp oral protest, the spokesman said.

New Jobs for Bulgarian and Zhukov Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Diplomatic officials speculated today that new jobs may be in the offing for Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and defense Minister Georgi Zhukov.

The speculation about another Kremlin shakedown was inspired by the circumstances surrounding party boss Nikita Khrushchev's rendezvous in Romania last Thursday and Friday with Yugoslav President Tito.

Bulgarian missed those talks — believed to have dealt with prime satellite political topics — and also was omitted from the list of officials joining Khrushchev in a scheduled visit this week to East Germany.

Speculating on new Kremlin moves is an uncertain business at best, diplomatic officials conceded, but they hazarded guesses that:

1. Bulganin, noticeably shrinking in prominence since Khrushchev thwarted an attack on his leadership last June, might be kicked upstairs to the presidency. This powerless post now is held by the aging Klement Voroshilov.

2. Zhukov, President Eisenhower's World War II comrade in arms, might succeed Bulganin as premier, giving Khrushchev a chance to cash in on Zhukov's high

Investigation Into Texarkana Death

TEXARKANA (AP) — The Optimist Boys Club is trying to learn how a 6-year-old boy, who died of internal injuries Sunday, became impaled on a wading pool water pipe.

Club officials, who operate the pool here, launched an investigation into the death of Sammy Sullivan, son of Mrs. Margaret Sullivan, a widow with six other children.

The boy's sister, Ruth, 11, said another boy pushed Sammy onto the pipe Saturday. But pool manager Clarence Roberts said he believes Sammy jumped from the side of the pool and landed on the pipe, which juts from the bottom of the pool and sprays water.

The pool was drained and closed after Sammy was pulled out screaming. A physician said the boy's abdomen was filled with water.

Air Force Fund Cut, Solons Cite Extravagance

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee slashed $279,158,380 from a supplemental money bill today and told the Air Force not to make its new academy "a monument to governmental extravagance."

It approved $1,581,590,587 of the $1,860,748,007 President Eisenhower had requested for miscellaneous programs, mainly for military construction.

Included in the total approved was 12½ millions of the 3½ millions requested for a new Washington airport at nearby Burke, Va., a project fought bitterly by both Maryland and Virginia senators.

The committee cut $8,332,000 from the $20,190,000 requested for construction at the new Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Co. It expressed dissatisfaction over "the evident lack of concern for cost factors."

Some contracts have been let at costs as much as three times original estimates, it said.

The steady increase in air traffic into and out of Washington, the committee said, makes it imperative that the area have a new airport by 1960. The estimated over-all cost of the proposed new airport at Burke is 60 million dollars. The committee said the full construction cost will be amortized over "a reasonable number of years, thereby costing the taxpayers nothing."

Hiroshima Mayor Would Ban A-Bombs

HIROSHIMA (AP) — Hiroshima Mayor Tadao Watanabe called for abolition of nuclear weapons and an end to their testing today, the 12th anniversary of the atomic bombing of his city.

Some 20,000 persons assembled in Peace Memorial Park for the annual ceremony. Standing before the white stone cenotaph built on the spot where the bomb exploded, Watanabe said in a proclamation:

"It is only a foolish illusion to try to maintain peace by the might of possessing atom and hydrogen bombs; and experimenting with them."

"Present tests of nuclear weapons are undermining the existence of mankind. Radioactive elements, once taken inside the body, not only corrode from within but continue wreaking genetic havoc with the offspring."

As he concluded at 8:15 a. m., the time the American B29 dropped the bomb Aug. 6, 1945 — sirens and temple bells signaled the start of a minute of silent prayer and the release of 700 pigeons.

The crowd included Prince and Princess Mikasa, the first representatives of Japan's royal family to attend the memorial ceremony. The prince laid a flowered wreath at the foot of the memorial arch.

Watanabe laid before the cenotaph a list of 185 Hiroshima citizens who died in the past year from leukemia and other diseases more or less attributed by Japanese doctors to the bomb's radiation.

The known dead from the blast is put at 59,853, but estimates of the total number of victims run as high as 280,000.

Counties Billed for Exceeding Quotas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two Arkansas counties were billed a total of $10,000 today for exceeding their patient quotas at the University Medical Center last month.

Pulaski County, Little Rock and North Little Rock did not get statements because of a temporary court injunction. They already owe a total of $20,500 and are challenging the 1957 legislative act which set up the quota system.

Counties and their approximate bills included:

Jefferson $3,800; Lanoke $3,100; Arkansas $1,200; St. Francis $1,100; Saline $400; Dallas $240; Grant $200; Hot Spring $120; Lee $100 and Perry $85.

No Injuries as Submarines Collide

NEW LONDON, Conn., (UP) — Two U.S. Navy submarines collided underwater at dawn today in the Atlantic ocean about 100 miles south of here, but damage was minor and there were no injuries, the Navy reported.

A spokesman at Atlantic Fleet submarine headquarters said the USS Tusk and the USS Cobble were "returning to port under their own power."

The Tusk, a New London-based craft, and the Cobble, a unit of Submarine Squadron 6 out of Norfolk, Va., collided at 4:30 a. m. (EDT), the Navy said.

The two submarines were engaged in maneuvers at the time. Each craft has a crew of 74 men and 8 officers.

The Navy said an investigation will be conducted into the cause of the accident.

The Cobble, built by the Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics Corp., at nearby Groton, was commissioned in August, 1955. It is commanded by Lloyd G. Teich of Norfolk, Va.

The Tusk was commissioned a year later and was the last submarine to be built by the Crump Shipbuilding Co., of Philadelphia, which turned out submarines during World War II. Lt. Cmdr. H.F. Morgan, Jr., of Groton, Conn., is in command.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) predicted after a White House conference with President Eisenhower today that Congress will change the Senate's civil rights bill before passing it finally.

Knowland, the Senate Republican leader, told reporters the "general feeling is that the bill is not in satisfactory form at the present time."

House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts, speaking with newsmen separately after GOP congressional leaders had held a weekly conference with Eisenhower, said of the civil rights bill:

"It is unacceptable to the President in the form it is now in. He intimated strongly that it didn't meet what he is seeking to obtain, the right of all people to vote."

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supporters of a jury trial amendment closed the door today to any further Senate changes in a civil rights bill the Eisenhower administration seems on the verge of disowning.

Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) said he and others will block any attempts to get a unanimous consent agreement, necessary to reopen the bill to amendments, before its expected passage by the Senate tomorrow or Thursday.

With any alterations thus left to uncertain House action, the senatorial argument over the jury trial provision continued at a bitter level.

Sen. Javits (R-N.Y.), an advocate of a strong civil rights measure, disputed the contention of Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas that jury trials would be needed in only a few cases.

The amendment, sponsored by O'Mahoney and others, would require such trials in all federal court cases involving criminal contempt. Those cases arise where a judge desires to punish a defendant who fails to comply with the court's order or complies too late to make it effective.

President Eisenhower has been represented as likely to veto the measure unless this provision is limited to voting rights cases.

Administration leaders have contended the broad provision would disrupt the enforcement of the anti-trust laws and the carrying out of decisions by government regulatory bodies.

Johnson said there had been only a "handful" of criminal contempt cases. He added that those who argued justice couldn't be obtained with jury trials were arguing against the whole jury trial system.

Javits said in an interview it "isn't so" that only a few cases have gone the criminal contempt route.

"Ninety per cent of contempt cases are criminal contempt," he said.

O'Mahoney scoffed at administration contentions that the enforcement of anti-trust or regulatory commission decisions would be weakened.

"Most of his regulatory laws apply primarily to corporations and corporations are notorious in preferring to have their cases handled by judges and not by juries," he said. "The jury trial provision will strengthen enforcement in these cases."

does. Once I got up to trail her, and gurned around in the dark and said, "What are you doing up? You'll wake the baby. Go back to bed. If I want your company, I'll ask for it." So I went back to bed.

The question then arose as to why the average wife can't sleep eight hours without getting up to make at least one midnight or predawn patrol of the house. All the husbands agreed it wasn't because of illness.

"My wife says it's because there was too much garlic in the salad," said one.

"My wife just says she's restless," observed another and several husbands remarked their wives had made the same excuse.

"You know why I think they can't sleep at night?" offered one young hen-pecked husband. "It's because their conscience is bothering them—for all the mean things they said to us the day before."

Could this really be possible? The husbands looked at each other in wild surprise.

"Nonsense!" broke in a time-worn old husband, wise in the ways of wives.

"It isn't insomnia—and it isn't their conscience. Did you ever stay home and watch how wives operate? They work half an hour, then flop on a couch and nap for 15 minutes."

"Then they get up and go to the grocery store, and come home and nap for 15 minutes. Then they get up and dust the furniture for half an hour, then flop on the couch for another quick quarter hour of shut-eye. So it goes all day long."

"By nightfall they've put in a 12-hour day, all right, just like they brag. But one third of the time—four full hours—they spend taking naps. No wonder they complain they can't sleep at night, and get up and prod the house."

Well, wives? We pause for reply.

TALK ABOUT ECONOMY...

FORDS COST LESS PER MILE!

Fords cost less to buy!

No doubt about it! Model for model, right across the board, Ford cars are the lowest priced* of the low-price three. And don't be fooled by those "low prices" now being quoted for some "stripped down" models in the medium-price field. Remember, a '57 Ford equipped the way most people want a car today—with automatic transmission, heater and radio—costs hundreds of dollars less than these medium-priced cars, similarly equipped.* Any way you look at it, Fords cost less to buy.

*Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail delivered prices

Fords cost less to run!

In the only nationally recognized test of gasoline economy, the 1957 Mobilgas Economy Run, a Ford Six delivered more miles per gallon than any other car entered! This, remember, was no "private test" conducted for the benefit of a single manufacturer. This was grueling competition between 12 different makes of cars, 24 cars in all... supervised every mile of the way by officials of the United States Auto Club. And when the rugged 1568-mile test was over, Ford led all other cars regardless of size, weight or price in the thing you want most—actual miles per gallon!

Fords cost less to trade!

Latest official auction sale figures on used cars show clearly that the new kind of Ford commands a higher price than either of its two low-priced competitors. The men who bid at these auctions are professional buyers—men whose very livelihood depends upon their expert knowledge of cars. They pay more for used Fords because they know that Fords hold up in value. Like thousands of Ford owners from coast to coast, they have discovered that Ford is worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it, too!

Little League Team Ousted in State Play

The local Little League All-Stars lost in semifinals play in the state playoff by a 4 to 3 decision to Chickasha, Oklahoma at Pine Bluff yesterday.

The Oklahoma team went into a 2-0 lead early in the contest, but Hope tied it up. Then in the final inning the winners bunched three hits for two runs for a 4 to 2 lead. In their last time at bat Hope collected one run on a homer and got a man on second but couldn't bring him around.

Podres, Turley Have the Best Averages

NEW YORK (AP) — Southpaw Johnny Podres of the Brooklyn Dodgers, the majors' shutout king and right-handed Bob Turley of the New York Yankees show the best earned run averages among big league pitchers at the season's two-thirds mark.

Figures compiled by the Associated Press statistical bureau reveal that Podres leads the National League with an earned run average of 2.87. He has given up 36 earned tallies in 128 1/3 innings while winning nine games and losing four.

Turley, who has a 7-3 record, has the leading American League ERA of 2.25. Bob has yielded only 25 unearned runs in 100 frames. This represents a big improvement over last season when he finished with a 5.05 ERA.

Bob has walked only 51 batters and struck out 88.

The Yankees dominate the American League competition. Behind Turley come Bobby Shantz and Art Ditmar, both acquired from Kansas City last winter and both showing ERA's of 2.45. Shantz, who has a 9-3 record, has worked 125 frames and Ditmar, who is 8-1, 103 innings.

Sam Jones of St. Louis is runner-up to Podres in the National League. Jones has permitted 37 earned runs in 120 1/3 innings for a 2.76 ERA. He has won nine games and dropped four and pitched shutouts against Philadelphia and New York.

Willie Blamed Partially for Dodger Move

BROOKLYN (AP) — There's no truth to the rumor the Dodgers are getting away from Ebbetts Field solely to rob Willie Mays of his favorite home run target.

Solely, no. Partially? Maybe. Willie's hit 177 home runs during his brilliant career with the New York Giants and 20 have banded into the red-painted seats beyond the cozy Ebbetts Field walls while Brooklyn pitchers glared in disgust.

On the basis of no more than 50 games played in Brooklyn by Mays Co., that's an average of about one every other game, somewhat better than par.

The spectacular Giant center fielder put on one of his more prolific shows last night, getting his 28th Ebbetts Field homer and adding three singles while scaring the daylights out of the Brooks who managed to win 5-2.

Only in his last time at bat did he fail to hit safely and it ruined his evening. With two out in the ninth and two on base, Willie swug from the heels for the homer that would tie the score.

He managed only an easy infield bounce, that ended the game.

"I never can hit homers when I go or one," he said disgustedly in the dressing room. "And I was really
